3.15pm – 4.30pm	Keeping Children Engaged in Education The number of children who are missing education or persistently absent from school remains stubbornly high. This session will explore

	some of the barriers to keeping children engaged in education and what schools, local authorities and health partners are doing to help reverse this trend. Speakers:  Sue Johnson, Chair of NAVSH; Roisin McEvoy, Anna Freud Centre;  Kiran Gill, The Difference Chair: Heather Sandy, Chair of ADCS Education Policy Committee
4.30pm – 6.00pm	Workshops x4
Workshop A	Building the foundations for a great life This session will explore how families can be supported to give their young children strong foundations for a great life, with a focus on addressing inequalities, promoting community engagement and spotlighting the importance of play. Contributors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Heather Barnes, Hull City Council</li> <li>• Caroline Scuffam, Goodwin Development Trust</li> <li>• Sarah Newman, Bi-Borough</li> <li>• Jacqui Old, Lancashire County Council</li> </ul> Chair: Rachael Wardell, ADCS Vice President
Workshop B	Anti-racist practice across children's services This session will hear from three different local authorities embedding anti-racist practice across their workforce to better support children, young people and families from diverse communities and backgrounds. Contributors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sukriti Sen, Essex County Council</li> <li>• Shelley Gill, Durham County Council</li> <li>• Rachel Farnham, Durham County Council</li> <li>• Mark Scott, Sheffield City Council</li> <li>• Lindsay Hutton, Sheffield City Council</li> </ul> Chair: Nicola Curley, Chair of ADCS Workforce Policy Committee
Workshop C	Child sexual abuse in the family environment: addressing challenges in practice Based on the work of the Centre of Expertise on Child Sexual Abuse and the Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel, this session will reflect on the myriad practice and multi-agency system challenges in protecting and supporting children who have been sexually abused in the family environment. The workshop will explore the role of children's services leaders in enabling and supporting the very best multi-agency practice.

	Contributors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Annie Hudson, Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel</li> <li>• Jenny Coles, Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel</li> <li>• Ian Dean, Centre Expertise on Child Sexual Abuse</li> <li>• Anna Glinski, Centre Expertise on Child Sexual Abuse</li> </ul> Chair: Tania Townsend, Vice Chair, ADCS SPI Policy Committee
Workshop D	Waiting well With the demand for autism and ADHD assessments rising sharply in recent years, how are local authorities meeting the needs of these children while they wait for diagnosis? We explore examples of how LAs are working with schools, children, parents and carers to ensure that children are 'waiting well'. Contributors: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Lee-Anne Farach, Medway Council</li> <li>• Julia Cox, Medway Council</li> <li>• William Rigg, Bristol City Council</li> <li>• Mark Patton, Newcastle City Council.</li> </ul> Chair: Harmesh Bhogal, Director of Children's Services, Bedford Borough Council
7.30pm	Drinks Reception
8.00pm	Dinner
Friday 12 July
9.00am – 10.15am	Keeping children and young people safe in their communities National policy responses to rising violence in communities too often focus on crime and punishment rather than prevention or early help and have not focused enough on disproportionality. The root causes of harm, and the societal conditions that allow abuse and exploitation to flourish, have similarly been overlooked but will be explored in this session. Speakers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Prof. Carlene Firmin, Durham University</li> <li>• Phil East, Salford Foundation</li> <li>• Dr Karla Goodman, London Innovation and Improvement Alliance</li> </ul> Chair: Florence Kroll, Chair of ALDCS and DCS Royal Borough of Greenwich Council
